ACKNOWLEDGMENT

The Columbia Journal of Asian Law gratefully acknowledges the generous grant from the Parker School of Foreign and Comparative Law which made the establishment of the Journal possible.

EDITOR'S NOTE

Published semi-annually under the auspices of the Center for Chinese Legal Studies, the Center for Japanese Legal Studies, and the Center for Korean Legal Studies at the Columbia University School of Law, the Columbia Journal of Asian Law is the successor to the Journal of Chinese Law, which commenced publication in 1987. The Columbia Journal of Asian Law provides a forum for legal practitioners and scholars from Asia, the United States, and elsewhere to discuss the broad range of issues that relate to law in the countries of Asia. The Columbia Journal of Asian Law welcomes multidisciplinary, historical, and comparative manuscripts, as well as those describing and analyzing aspects of contemporary law and practice. As part of this effort, the Columbia Journal of Asian Law maintains a World Wide Web site, located at <http://www.columbia.edu/cu/asiaweb>.

The Columbia Journal of Asian Law welcomes your financial support. Contributions can be sent to:
